

Silvertown Tunnel

London

Role

Quod is instructed to provide strategic advice to Transport for London on its emerging proposals for a new road crossing of the River Thames, connecting Greenwich Peninsular with Silvertown.

Following further consultation, an application will be prepared for development consent and Quod’s role includes advising on scheme selection, how environmental impacts can be limited and how important economic benefits can be optimised so that the project can make its way successfully through the DCO examination process.
